PROFILE

As CEO of the Dumas Collective®, Mr. Binitie directs vision and oversight of the acquisition, development, property management, and financial activities of the conglomerate—across the Mid-Atlantic and Southeastern region. Mr. Binitie has an extensive tax credit financing experience (LIHTC, NMTC and HTC) and has closed on financing from nearly every public capital source available. To date Dumas Collective closed over $2.3B in financing resulting in over 8,000 workforce and affordable units. Mr. Binitie maintains a narrow focus on the creation and preservation of affordable housing for people of modest means.

- Buwa has over eighteen years of experience in financing complex real estate transactions. By narrowly focusing on efficiently financing community development transactions, Buwa has been successful in adding value beyond the numbers.
- Buwa speaks regularly at industry focused events including The Minority Resource, African-American Real Estate Professionals, Bisnow, DC Building Industry Association, Georgetown University and University of Maryland—Colvin Institute of Real Estate Development.
- Buwa serves as a teaching mentor for the Equitable Development Program and Housing Equity Accelerator Fellowship in partnership with Capital Impact Partners and Amazon, Baker Tilly's Equitable Development Initiative Network, Real Estate Executive Council (REEC), LISC and Howard University REEX Summer Program.
